Professional Standards and Business Conduct

Purpose

This Policy outlines thical standards of behavior expected of all Boston College employed as ir dealings inside and outside the University It reflects Boston College's commitment to the highest thical values and the importance it places on the od reputation of its community as both necessary condition to the advancement of its mission and a measure of utcess Many of the standards outlined here are the subject of more detailed University in each of these cases a link is provided to the relevant policy.

Ethical Conduct

The mission of Boston College is sustained by the trust placed in its administrators, faculty and staff by students, parents, benefactors, business partnered by governmental entities soston College employees therefore must preserve this trust through ethical, fair and honest dealings in all matters and through diligent efforts to comply with all applicable laws, regulations and University policies When questions arise concerning the application of this standard to specific mstances. University employees are expected consult with their supervisor, or other propriate administrators

Reporting of Fraud and Unethical Practices

All University employees are expected to report any instance of suspected fraud or other violation of the standards of ethical conduct, including anytance of suspected fraudither directly to the Director of Internal Audit, or though the University's nonymous reporting "holine" service at Tet 855327-4477, or at or at the Ethicspoin tweether the service at Tet 855327-4477.

Additional infomation concerning reports of fraud or unethical conduct is provided in the University Policy on Reporting of Fraud

Respect for the Community

Boston College commits itself to maintaining a wellbicinesing there that involved all pitus the translation of Unit including the hips Policy

Other related polices are found in the Faculty Handbook the Employee Handbook the Faculty Handbook

Privacyand Security of Confidentialformation

Boston College employees are expected amiliarize themselves with their obligations to maintain the confidentiality of personal or proprietary information under their control and to properly safeguard such information from unauthorized disclosured any of these obligations will arise from specific contractual arrangements such as notisclosure agreements ome will arise from specific search protocols approved by the Boston Collectinstitutional Review Boar Other University Policies are of broad application and require the compliance of virtually all University employees: the University Policy related Data Security Directive and the University Policy on Student Education Records

Conflict of Interest and Commitment

All University employees must be alert to potential conflicts of interest and commitment, cevuirnirUndml9/s04 12

Appropriate Use of Technologynd Information Resources

The technological and information resources of Boston College are to be accessed and utilized in an ethical manner. All users of technological and information resources are to adhere to high moral, legal, and professional standards, and are expected to support the missimhact in the best interests