

New Club Sport Application Process

To be considered as a Club Sport at Boston College, a written proposal must be submitted to the Assistant Director, Competitive Sports & Recreational Camp. The document must include the following information:

- Facilities and equipment required
- Proposed practice and competition schedule
- Whether there a national and/or regional governing body for the sport
- List of colleges/universities within 150 miles that offer the sport